PENSACOLA'S CARNIVAL TO BE PERPETUATED

Largely Attended Meeting of Prominent Business Men and Citizens Was Held Yesterday—Committee to Be Appointed to Raise the $1,000 Deficit.

CONSIDERABLE DISCUSSION OVER THE ACTION OF SOME OF THOSE WHO DERIVE BENEFITS FROM THE CARNIVAL AND WHO CONTRIBUTE BUT LITTLE.

King Priscus will continue to make his annual visits to Pensacola. Pensacola's Mardi Gras celebrations, which have been features for years, will be perpetuated. This was the unanimous sentiment of the large number of business men and citizens who attended the meeting yesterday in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, which had been called by President Walker Ingraham, of the Carnival Association.

President Ingraham called the meeting to order with F. F. Bingham acting as secretary. Mr. Ingraham explained the object of the meeting to be to devise ways and means to liquidate the indebtedness of the association, which was entailed in giving the last celebration, there being a deficit of over $1,000 and also to decide whether or not the celebrations should continue as in the past.

The report of the treasurer showed that the total expenses for the 1905 event had been $3,500, while only $4,200 had been collected, leaving a deficit of $1,300. This was caused by many of the stockholders not paying their pro rata of the expense and also for the reason that many persons in Pensacola who reap rich harvests from the carnivals had not donated anything at all.

The 1907 Carnival.

President Ingraham stated that should it be decided to continue the carnivals in future that they could not be gotten up for the same amount of money, as in the past, and that the 1907 carnival would cost at least $7,000. Fifteen floats were desired and Artist Weber could not prepare them at a cost of $150.00 each as he had in the past, so that there would not only be an increase in the cost of floats, but also in the number.

A number of prominent business men present spoke upon the question of continuing the events, as they were not only advertisements for the city, bringing immense crowds here, but also served the purpose of keeping many Pensacolans at home, who would otherwise visit other cities.

Stuck the Association.

Instances of how the association had been apparently stuck by business men were cited by President Ingraham. He stated that a contract had been made with the Pensacola Amusement Company for the use of the opera house for the sum of $75.00. When the bill was received it was for $100, an additional $25 having been added for help. He also stated that Mr. Coe, of the company had declined to subscribe to the fund this year and the amusement company had made no donation.

The hiring of carriages was then discussed. Mr. Ingraham stated that the Pensacola Stables had charged the association $10 for each carriage used, while heretofore a charge of only $5 had been paid. He added that individuals could have secured the same carriages for the entire day at the latter price, but the association was compelled to pay double.

Geo. W. Clutter suggested the idea of building a large hall in which to give the coronation balls and said that the admission charged would soon pay for the same. In addition it could be used for other purposes during the year. No action was taken. The chairman of the advertising committee read a report of what had been done towards advertising the carnival, showing that nothing had

THISTLES AND DANDRUFF.

An Interesting Parallel and a Valuable Deduction Therefrom.

Cutting down thistles no more relieves the land of thistles than does scouring the scalp cure dandruff. In each case permanent relief can only come from eradicating permanently the cause. A germ that plows up the scalp in searching for the hair root where it saps the vitality, causes dandruff, falling hair, and baldness. If you kill that germ, you'll have no dandruff but a luxuriant suit of hair. Newbro's Herpicide is the only hair preparation in the world that cures dandruff and falling hair by killing the germ. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." For sale by W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 South Palafox street, or send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

MILTON

Special to The Journal.

Milton, Mar. 8.—Quite a romantic marriage took place here Tuesday night. Dr. Adair, a dentist and widower of Bagdad, went to the depot about 9 o'clock armed with a marriage license and accompanied by the Methodist minister, Mr. Ellisor. The train from the east, which arrived at 10 o'clock, brought from Jacksonville a Mrs. Carter and two daughters. Dr. Adair and the widow Carter had never met before, but according to previous arrangements they were then and there united in the holy bonds of matrimony in the presence of the usual curious gang that hang around the depot. The happy couple went on their way rejoicing—to their home in Bagdad.

A. M. McMillan and Sheriff Van Pelt, of Pensacola, made a lying business trip to Milton Tuesday.

R. H. Bonifay, a mill man of McDavid, transacted business here Monday.

Coyler Campbell, of Chumuckla, was in Milton Tuesday.

Cured Consumption.
Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: My husband lay sick for three months. The doctor said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal. 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.

AMUSEMENTS

James O'Neill, in Monte Cristo at the Opera House Tonight

Last Night's Play.

The Gagnon-Pollock Stock Co. presented to a well-pleased and good-sized audience last night a play called "Woman Against Woman." Of course this is not a new play, but it is most certainly one of the strongest repertoire plays on the road. Judging from the manner in which it was handled last night, it must be a favorite with this clever company, as each member of the cast seemed to put into it all the force, life and pathos that it required. This is particularly true of Mr. Bert C. Gagnon, as Joe Tressider, and Miss Edith Pollock as Bessie Barton. These two people got out of their respective parts all that it was possible to get. The great climax scene of Miss Pollock was especially strong and was enthusiastically applauded.

The specialties were all very fine. No stale jokes, and no forced comedy, but all clean, genuine fun, and a lot of songs well rendered. "When the Frost is on the Pumpkin" and "Farewell Sweetheart May" were the two selections sung by Bert C. Gagnon with illustrations. Both were very enjoyable.

The company will resume its engagement here Saturday afternoon with "The Flag of Truce," and will close Saturday night with "Deadwood Dick."

"Monte Cristo."

"Monte Cristo," with James O'Neill in the title role will be seen here tonight.
